CHATHAM JUVENILES CRUSH JAPANESE SOFTBALLERS 15-0

SPORTS REVIEW

By CHARLES W. CARNEY, Chatham News Sports Editor

That exhibition game between Chatham Juveniles and the Japanese laborers last night had plenty of S.A. (spectator appeal). Handa was dashing around in left field gobbling up everything that was hit at him. And Kand, the catcher, wears a pair of glasses when playing. A bespectacled catcher, of course, is rarely seen for the reason that the specs constitute a hazard for the wearer.

The game was attended by a large and fair-minded crowd which is to Chatham's credit. And because of the interesting type of ball played, there should be an even larger crowd when the teams play another game here next Thursday.

Soccer Meeting Monday Night

If you would like to see a soccer league operating in Chatham this fall attend the organization meeting Monday night at eight o'clock at the home of William Tope, 57 Selkirk street. There's an excellent chance for getting at least three entries . . . . If necessary, a three-team league could operate but it would not be as satisfactory as a four-team circuit. Perhaps a couple of indsutrial concerns in the city will pool their players to form one strong team, thus creating a group with four competitors.

Golf Champions Here For Exhibition

Golf enthusiasts in Chatham will have an opportunity Sunday afternoon to watch four of the finest golfers in the country playing on the Chatham Golf and Country Club. Scheduled to appear here are Bobby Gray, of Toronto, who broke a 37-year record in the 1941 Canadian Open; Gordon Brydson of Mississauga; Bobbie Burns of Weston and Dick Bothwick of Oakdale.

Golf has had a successful season in Chatham, R. T. Gray, club professional said the other day, and the number of members in the Chatham Golf and Country Club is between 300 and 400.

EIGHT-RUN RALLY TOPS VISITORS

For the first time in the annals of Chatham softball a team of Japanese played in the city last night and absorbed a 15-0 shellacking at the hands of the Juveniles on Tecumseh Park. Eight of the winners' 15 runs came in the sixth inning and four more were scored in the seventh.

The exhibition game, which was attended by a large crowd, had to be halted at the end of seven innings' play due to darkness.

Seven of the Japs' nine errors were committed in the last two innings and this accounted largely for the lop-sided score. But the visitors succeeded at least in making their miscues in an entertaining way. For instance, it was not uncommon for a Japanese outfielder to juggle a fly before dropping it. The infielders, too, provided a number of crowd-pleasing plays.

K. Shimuju foiled on the mound for the visitors and for the first five innings he held the Juveniles to three runs, but in the sixth his supporting cast booted the ball for four errors and when the Juveniles rapped four hits and Shimuju walked three, eight runs were scored to sew up the game for Chatham.

NIGHTMARE FOR SHIMUJU

The Jap pitcher walked Waddell to start the rally. Emans singled, and when Mishicski fumbled Teeter's fly, Waddell scored. A moment later Mishicski dropped another drive, this one from the bat of J. Doddy, to score Emans.

Mikulica singled scoring Teeter. P. Doddy flied out to Handa. Colby popped to Shimuju and Carswell was safe on Idgnowye's error. Mikulica scoring. Nagle doubled bringing home Carswell. Waddell struck out for the second time.

Emans singled to tally Nagle and Waddell. Teeter walked for the second time. And J. Doddy Grounded out Takaoka to Kajagnichi, to end the inning.

The Juveniles countered four more runs in the seventh but they were purely superfluous.

Tom Nagle and Paul Conley shared the hurling duties for Chatham and limited the Japanese to three hits.

R. Handa, Nipponese left-fielder played a scintillating defensive game snaring five flys, two of which were unusually well-tagged. In the third inning he dove into a row of benches to catch P. Doddy's smash.

While Chatham made 12 hits, only two hlows—P. Doddy's home run and T. Nagle's double—went for extra bases. The latter's only extra-base knock was Kama's two-bagger.

BROOKLYN'S N. L. LEAD IS SLASHED TO ONE GAME AS MORT COPS 20TH

By AUSTIN BEALMER
Associated Press Sports Writer

They're singing "The St. Louis Blues" in Flatbush today and the cause of it all is Morton Cooper, first 20-game winner of 1942 among the pitchers of the major leagues but strictly a pain in the pennant race to Brooklyn Dodgers.

Cooper, who forms the front end of the only brother battery now intact in the majors, carved out his 20th triumph yesterday with one of the most impressive performances of his career and probably the most important.

He pitched St. Louis Cardinals to a 3-0 shutout over the Dodgers, holding them to three scattered hits as the Cards chopped Brooklyn's lead in the National League flag chase to a singie game.

He collected two of his team's eight blows, starting both of the Cardinal run-making sprees and tallying each time against the ace of the Brooklyn curving corps, John Whitlow Wyatt.

EIGHTH SHUTOUT

It was the eighth shutout of the season for Cooper, first Cardinal ever to pitch that many scoreless games in a single year. It was his fifth triumph over the Dodgers, three of which have been shutouts at Ebbets Field.

The big right hander didn't let a man get past first base. He walked only one and struck out three —Dolph Camilli twice and pinch hitter Lew Riggs—the latter with a man on base.

Thus the Cards, who hold an edge of 12 games to nine over the Dodgers this season, have only to repeat yesterday's performance or produce a reasonable facsimile in their final meeting today to take over a half interest in first place.

The 1-2 standing in the National League:

	Games To W. L.	Behind Play
Brooklyn	94 45	— 15
St. Louis	93 46	1 15

FIND ONES TOUGH

In the American League, the front-running New York Yankees also are finding the path to the pennant a little rough, having failed to score in their last 23 innings, but they still stand nine games to the good and do not appear in any danger.

Chicago White Sox handed the Yanks their second straight shutout yesterday as Ed Smith shaded Atley Donald in a pitching duel, 1-0. Meanwhile Boston's second place Red Sox picked up a full game by walloping the Cleveland Indians, 15-2, on a 17-hit attack. Tony Lupien started the parade with a three-run double off Jim Bagby in the opening frame.

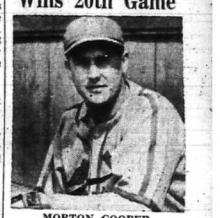

The 1-2 standing in the American League:

	Games To W. L.	Behind Play
New York	94 47	— 13
Boston	85 56	9 12

Elsewhere in the junior circuit, Philadelphia Athletics stopped Detroit Tigers, 5-4, and St. Louis Browns whipped the Washington Senators, 10-4, with the help of home runs by Chet Laabs, Walt Judnich and Frankie Hayes.

Two other games in the National League saw the New York Giants edge out the Chicago Cubs, 4-3, and Cincinnati Reds beat the Philadelphia Phils, 8-5, in 11 innings. Pittsburgh's scheduled doubleheader at Boston was postponed until today because of weather.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—If Col. Bob Neyland's Eastern United States Army all-star football outfit fails to show as much today as Maj. Wallace Wade's western crew, mybe you can blame it on a coin . . . The two coaches flipped for choice players and when it came to fullbacks Neyland won and picked Normal Standlee over John Kimbrough, who has been practically the whole western team.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Frank B. Ward, Youngstown (O.) Vindicator: "There are 24 members of the Baseball Writers' Association in the armed forces now—and probably all prepared to second-guess every major operation."

ODDS—AND SOME ENDS

Mushky Jackson, who has been in the fight racket for 28 years, is retiring to work in the shipyards —and he says its patriotism, not dough, that inspired the move . . . Mel Harwood, former National Hockey League referee, is lining up a coast guard hockey team to play in Baltimore. Art Coulter of the Rangers and Ty Anderson may be on the team . . . Lou Nova, back in training on the west coast, has been offered a scrap with Turkey Thompson at Los Angeles but says he'd rather fight Bob Pastor or Billy Conn at the Garden.

SOCIETY NOTE

When Billy Conn goes down to Mike Jacobs' Rumson, N.J., estate to train for Louis, he'll sleep in Mike's house . . . The rest of his entourage will be quartered in a garage . . . 'All except the sparring partners," says Jacobs, "they'l have to commute."

TORONTO, Sept. 12—Vancouver golfers lead the field in raising money for war charities, with Montrealers their closest opposition. The coast city's exhibition season isn't over yet (Ben Hogan will be there next Thursday) but its $6,000 take in the Lions Gate Open gives it a clear margin on the field.

Montreal has raised $2,713 from three war charity field days and there may e more to come. Exact records aren't available from other cities, but they are known to fall below these figures.

The Royal Canadian Golf Association should have a large donation for the Red Cross at season's end, when the year's profits, including the swag from the Canadian Open, will be turned over. B. L. Anderson, secretary of the R.C.G.A., told me no figures will be available on this donation until the yearend.

Individual clubs have used many unusual money-raising plans to swell war funds. One of the most successful is at the Beaconsfield Club near Montreal, where anyone driving a certain bunker on the 18th hole pays 25 cents. There has been $40 worth of hooks, slices and (always be charitable, fellows) had bounces this season.

Herb (Winnipeg Tribune) Manning recalls an old managerial adage of the Northern League, where ancient buses provide all transportation: "I don't care if they hit or pitch, so long as they can change a tire." It must be lonesome around Iron-hard Park De Young in Regina these days, without the thuds and smashes of big men training for football and the soul-searing screams of Dean Griffing getting into shape for another season of heckling fans from the secondary defence line.

DRESDEN EDGES LONDON 3-2 IN PLAYOFF

DRESDEN, Sept. 12.—Elmer Patterson's sixth-inning double scoring Fox and Brewer was the margin by which Dresden defeated London 3-2 here last night in the first game of the W.C.B.A. Junior "B" finals.

Lambkin and Brewer hurled the victory for Dresden and allowed eight hits while the winners combed Dempsey, London's pitcher, for nine blows.

Dresden opened the scoring with one run in the first inning. London evened the count in the fifth and added another tally in the sixth, but Dresden's two runs in the last of the sixth were too much for London.

New Life and Ensor Prove $68.80 Hunch

CAMDEN, N. J., Sept. 12.—As Buddy Ensor, one-time famous jockey, appears to have taken a new lease on life in his latest comeback, it was little wonder that several hunch players went along with New Life, L. NEW YORK, Sept. 12. — "Nice shot Admiral." "Thanks, Private."

It could only happen on a golf course and in this country — a buck private playing an admiral. Yet that was the picture at Seawane, Hewlett, L. Nats Just Told Roy Cullenbine He Was Lucky

NEW YORK, Sept. 12. — Bill Dickey presented the departing Chief Boatswain's Mate Tommy Henrich with a watch as Roy Cullenbine reported to the Yankees. Dickey read the inscription: "To Tommy Henrich from your Yankee pals who mark time until you get back with us. Sept., 1942."

"What did the Senators say to you when you left?" a baseball writer asked Cullenbine.

"They told me I was a lucky so-and-so", replied the outfielder.

Vern Stephens Is A. L. Recruit of the Year; Stresses DeWitt's Fine Job With Browns; Newsom, Dodger at Heart, Still Has Stuff

BY HARRY GRAYSON

NEWYORK, Sept. 12. — Vern Stephens should be adjudged the American League recruit of the year.

The opposition will come from the supporters of Johnny Pesky the boy who looks like a little old man at shortstop for the Red Sox. The Browns wouldn't swap Vern Stephens for Pesky and the Bosons wouldn't give Pesky for Stephens, but the latter should get the nod on the power of his poke.

Both are remarkable fielding sortstops, although Stephens probably has the stronger arm, which comes in handy when he gets far ed deep to his right.

Pesky is batting .327 as against Stephens' .308, but Stephens is the run-batter-inner with 82 compared to 41.

Pesky is a left-handed bloop hitter, bunts and drags to get base hits. Stephens is a right-handed swep hitter with 10 home runs and a flock of triples and doubles. Stephens made the Browns, enable Luke Sewell to take them from sixth place to a charging third.

Stephens further stresses the value job Bill DeWitt has turned in since taking over the bankrupt and discouraged Browns in December, 1936.

Of the athletes General Manager DeWitt inherited Third Baseman Harlond Clift was the only one for whom he could have collected anything important in the way of talent or money.

Yet, and without spending a dime, DeWitt has built a pennant contender under distressing circumstances.

The Browns will break even this season, which is a terrific victory for Bill DeWitt.

Louie Norman Newsom returns to the Brooklyns after an absence of 12 years. It was Nap Rucker, the famous southpaw, who first discovered Buck Newsom in some cotton patch or other in the deep south and shipped him to the Dodgers with an assortment of weird windups and absolutely no control.

Since that time, Bobo Newsom has settled down to an established windup and acquired control, among other things.

Only a rich club could afford Newsom at 34 and in face of what the game faces next year. It is guessed that Larry McPhail paid anywhere from $15,000 to $50,000 for him. Washington had some salary in the old boy, you know, for he collected $35,000 in Detroit in 1941.

But Newsom still has the stuff and could pay his way in Brooklyn by winning three or four games.

"I want to congratulate you on buying pennant insurance," he telegraphed Leo Durocher. "I'm still a good pitcher."

Brooklyn should not have permitted Buck Newsom to get away in the first place.

He was always a Dodger at heart.
